

New Generation Education Services
Bylaws

Article 1: Name and Purpose

Section 1: The organizational name is New Generation Christian Ministries

Section 2: New Generation Christian Ministries is organized exclusively for educational purposes including, for such purposes, as the distribution to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. As such all assets will be disbursed to other nonprofit organizations upon dissolution of the corporation. New Generation Education Services will provide education services including a full-time day school and afternoon tutoring to the at-risk student population.

Article II Members

New Generation Education Services does not have members

Article III: Board of Directors

Section 1: Board role, size and composition. The board is responsible for the guiding and directing in the policies of the organization. This means that the Board will give necessary direction and oversight of the corporation planning, functioning and goals. The day-to-day operating of the programs will be left to the executive director and program manager. The Board will consist of at least 5 and no more than eleven members. The Board shall receive no compensation for their services.

Section 2: The Board has the responsibility for guiding and directing the various duties of the executive director by the Board's authority to remove the executive director can only be exercised for cause.

Section 3: Election of Board members service. Board members shall be appointed for the initial selections. Thereafter, new board members will be elected by the board with a 2/3 majority vote.

Section 5: Quorum: At least 50% of the board members must be present in order to transact corporate business.

Section 6: Meeting. Meeting will be held at a minimum of quarterly at a prearrange time and place.

Section 7: Board member may be removed from duty for the following reasons: Failure to attend a majority of meetings, conflicts of interest, unethical behavior, breach of confidentiality.

Section 8: Voting. All votes will be cast using a show of hands, except if otherwise indicated by the president of the Board.

Article IV Officers of the Board

Section 1: President. The president of the Board shall conduct all meetings and ensure that all records are maintained of the meetings

Section 2: Vice President: The vice president shall be in charge and conduct all meetings if the president is unavailable.

Section 3: Secretary: The secretary will take notes of the meeting and ensure that all official records are kept orderly and available for deferral authorities as needed.

Article V: Board committees

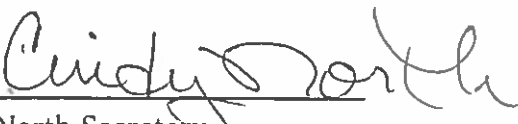

Section 1: The Board may choose to develop committees to work on specific task. The committees will report all transaction and developments to the Board during regular meetings.

Article VI: Amendments of the bylaws:

Section 1: The Board may amend these bylaws, except for Article III section2, with a majority vote.

These bylaws are current and all amendments are listed as of 9/15/2012.

Signed
Paula Miller-Gorman, Ph.D., President

Signed
Cindy North Secretary